“As an alumni and a 16-year Intel employee, I’ve had several opportunities to bring qualified Willamette MBA grads into Intel in Oregon. I think it’s worked out well for them and for Intel, too. The Willamette grads’ work ethic, analytical skills and creative intelligence is a great fit with Intel’s results-oriented culture.”

— Dan Fineberg, MBA '81, Marketing Manager, Intel End-user Platform Integration Group

A Quality Professional MBA

Willamette University’s Professional MBA program, located in Portland’s Pearl District, combines a quality AACSB-accredited education with a convenient schedule tailored to you – the working professional.

Convenient Structure

The PMBA program allows working professionals to:

- complete their MBA in only 24 months
- attend classes two evenings per week
- create a network of professional contacts

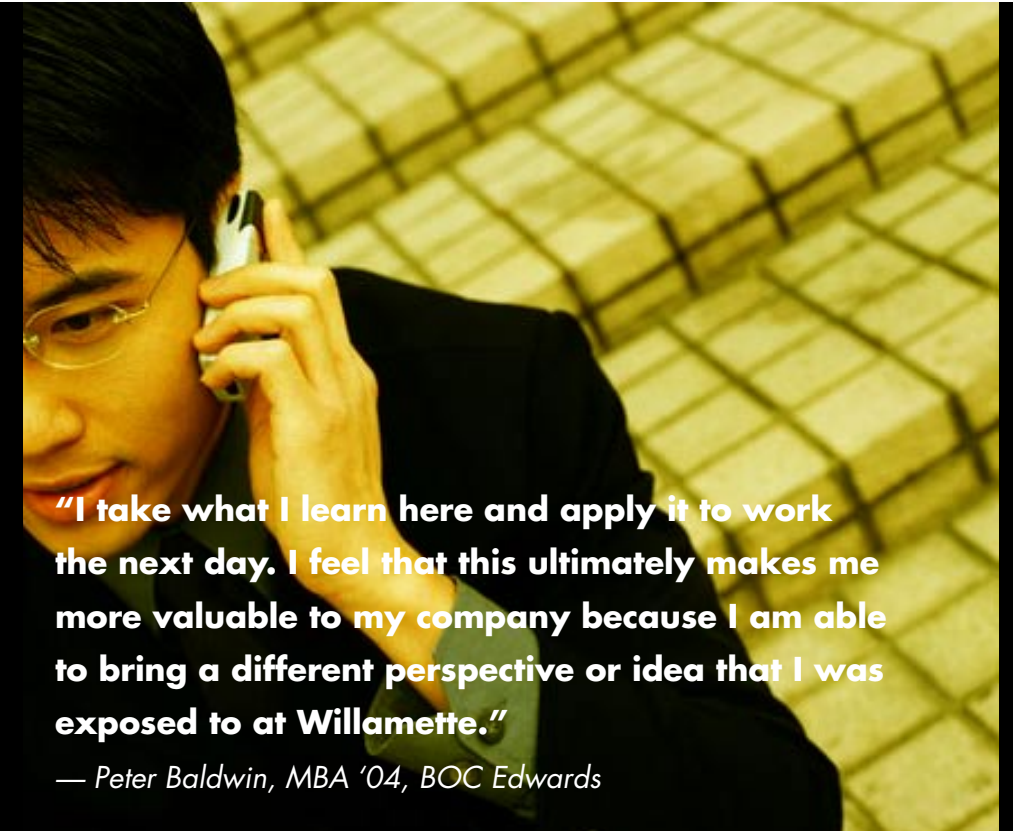

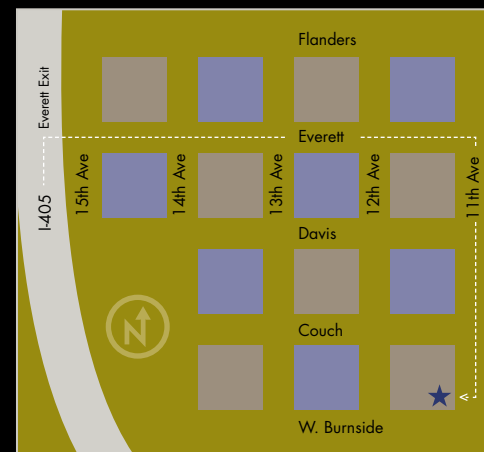

“The Willamette MBA was a good investment for me both professionally and personally, because of the content of the program and the unique access to and interaction with the faculty.”

— Eric Hagen, MBA '96, Planning and Analysis Manager, Tektronix

Outstanding Faculty

PMBA courses are taught by Willamette’s full-time MBA faculty, who are excellent teachers and leaders in their fields. Students will:

- build a solid foundation of management practices
- develop the tools to manage challenges and goals
- apply concepts and skills to their current workplace
- prepare for increased responsibilities in the demanding marketplace

“I take what I learn here and apply it to work the next day. I feel that this ultimately makes me more valuable to my company because I am able to bring a different perspective or idea that I was exposed to at Willamette.”

— Peter Baldwin, MBA '04, BOC Edwards

Ideal Location

PMBA classes are conveniently taught at Willamette University’s Portland Center located in the Pearl District. The location offers:

- easy access by the MAX train and public transit
- plenty of parking
- a knowledgeable staff to handle all the details while students focus on learning
