

EVENTS, 2002–2003

(Archival Gallery)

Besides this regular event -- Chinese Dinner Table, 5:30–6:30, Goudy Commons -- also join these:

Department of Japanese and Chinese & Asian Studies Program Present

Asian Studies Lecture/Workshop Series, 2002–2003

(Made possible by the generous support from the Henry Luce Foundation)

(1) Journey to the Enlightenment: A Talk by the Film Producer,

Gabriella Martinelli (also the producer of the film, M. Butterfly)

Time: Oct. 2, 4–6 pm

Place: Hallie Ford Museum of Arts

(2) A Tour to the Chinatown and Chinese Garden in Portland

Led by Professors P. Howard and J. Zhang

Time: Oct. 6, 10:00–3:00

Place: Eagle Fountain (pictures)

(3) Chinese and Japanese Calligraphy: Develop your aesthetics with brush pens.

Hands-on practice with Mr. Zhou, a visiting calligrapher from China.

Time: Oct. 11, 1:00–2:00

Place: 230 FAW (pictures)

(4) From Sinology to Chinese Studies: Four Centuries of Scholarly Western Approach to China

Time: 4:00–5:30, Nov. 14. (Thursday)

Magic and the Literary Tradition of China

Time: 2:00–3:30, Nov. 15 (Friday)

Presentations by Professor David Honey, Brigham Young University

Place: Hatfield Room. (Refreshments provided)

(5) A Field Trip to the Celebration of the Chinese New Year in Portland

Time: Feb. 1, 9:45–3:00 (pictures)

(6) Special Faculty Presentation: Reading Movies: Film and Narrative in Kishino Junko's Memoir

by Professor Ron Loftus

Time: Feb. 14, 2:30–4:00

Place: Hatfield Room (Refreshments provided)

(7) Special Faculty Presentation: Formation of National Culture and the Classicization of Music:

Perspectives from South and Southeast Asia.

by Professor Pamela Moro

Time: Feb. 21, 2:30–4:00

Place: Hatfield Room (Refreshments provided)

(8) Special Faculty Presentation: Cultural Exchange along the Silk Road

by Professor Xijuan Zhou

Time: Feb. 28, 2:30–4:00

Place: Hatfield Room (Refreshments provided)

(9) Special Faculty Presentation: Textile Weaving in India and Laos: Globalization and Gender

by Professors Carol Ireson–Doolittle and Suresht Bald

Time: March. 7, 2:30–4:00

Place: Smullin 222 (Refreshments provided)

(10) Special Faculty Presentation: How Does a Child Become a Japanese Child? : An Examination of School Life in Japan

by Professor Miho Fujiwara

Time: March 14, 2:30–4:00

Place: Hatfield Room (Refreshments provided)

(11) Horses and Societies in Medieval Eurasia

by Professor Pamela Crossley, Dartmouth College

Internationally renowned scholar of Chinese history and ethnicity

Time: April 4, 1:00–3:00

Place: Cone Chapel

(12) Special Faculty Presentation: From Fengshui to the Pursuit of Harmony

by Professor J. Zhang

Time: April 11, 2:30–4:00

Place: Smullin 222 (Refreshments provided)

(13) A Field Trip to the Japanese Garden in Portland

Time: April 13, 10:00–4:00

(14) Special Faculty Presentation: Healing the Body, Saving the Soul: Medical Missionaries and Opium Refuges in China, 1859 – 1906

by Professor P. Howard

Time: April 18, 2:30–4:00

Place: Hatfield Room (Refreshments provided)