Dear SSRD Moderator:

Thank you for your participation in this year’s SSRD program. We appreciate the time you committed to preparing and moderating your panel. We are gathering data about each SSRD panel and event to help determine if we successfully meet the goals of SSRD. Please assist us by completing this brief evaluation.

The results will help us determine how we will continue this Willamette tradition in the coming years.

Please return to ssrd-chair@willamette.edu.

Thank you again for your time.

The SSRD Committee

Your Panel Title: ___________________________________________

1=strongly agree  5=strongly disagree  NA=not applicable

Recognizing that people come and go between presentations, please estimate the number of students, faculty members, and guests attending your session.

Students __________ Faculty __________ Guests__________

Most of the students on my panel were well prepared for their presentations.

1 2 3 4 5 NA

I believe most of the students on my panel gained valuable intellectual experience from their participation in SSRD.

1 2 3 4 5 NA

The discussions and conversations that followed the presentations were stimulating and of high intellectual and inter-disciplinary quality.

1 2 3 4 5 NA

What changes would improve SSRD in the future?

________________________________________________________________________
Did you feel adequately prepared and supported in your role as moderator?

Yes  No

If not, please explain why?

________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________

If relevant, please describe any problems you or your panelists encountered in the course of your session.

________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________

We value your ideas. Please provide any other thoughts or suggestions you have regarding Willamette University’s Student Scholarship Recognition Day.

________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________

Thank you!