Motion In The Ocean

1. ________________ means moving something from its original place.

2. ________________ motion is moving in the same way.

3. ________________ motion is moving in the opposite way.

4. Waves in the ocean are called ________________ waves.

5. Longitudinal waves have displacement that is ________________ to the direction that the wave is moving.
   Example: __________________________________

6. Transverse waves have displacement that is ________________ to the direction that the wave is moving.
   Example: __________________________________