

Dona Adams Rothwell Scholarship

This scholarship was created to honor Dona B. Adams who received her B.A. from Willamette in 1949. Dona went on to work as a journalist and in higher education at the University of Michigan and continued to be active in A.A.U.W. and Pi Beta Phi alumnae activities. She has actively supported scholarship throughout her life. She and her husband, Michael Rothwell, raised three children all of whom earned doctorate degrees, including son, Patrick, who earned his J.D. from the Willamette University College of Law.
