For Office Use:
Assignment _____

Willamette University strives to provide a community environment where all students feel at ease. In this program, gender neutral housing offers same-gender, opposite-gender or other-gender identities to live together regardless of their biological sex. Individuals interested in a gender neutral housing placement are asked to complete this application in addition to the Housing Preference Form. This program is in no way intended to allow cohabitation (romantic involvement). Because of the unique nature of each assignment, Residential Services may not be able to guarantee an assignment to a specific building or roommate of your choice.
