GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

Read only this sheet before the examination begins. Do not turn the page until the exam begins. It is the responsibility of law students to be familiar with the Student Grievance Procedure. The following acts are violations over which the Grievance Committee has jurisdiction:

A. Acquiring or divulging unauthorized information concerning the content of an examination or other graded course material.
B. Violating the time limits provided for an examination, either by beginning before the stipulated time or by answering after the time set for completion.
C. Falsely representing another's words or ideas as one's own, in any academic work.
D. Collaborating upon a course-required project without the authorization of the instructor.

Put exam numbers on the exam envelope before the exam begins. Put exam numbers on the blue books as you use them. Page numbers are not necessary in the blue books.

An announcement will be given in each test center to start and stop the exam, including a 5-minute warning before the end of allocated exam time. All writing and marking on exams must cease when the announcement is made that the allocated time for the exam has expired. No exceptions will be allowed. This includes writing page and/or exam numbers on your completed exam.

All used scratch paper is to be returned inside the exam envelope. All unused blue books and scratch paper are to be returned to the collection box in the lobby. All exam questions must be returned at the end of the exam unless instructions clearly state that you may keep the questions.

If you have software problems that you cannot remedy by re-booting and re-launching the Exam4 software, you must hand-write the remainder of your exam.

SPECIFIC INSTRUCTIONS

1. This is a closed-book exam, meaning that you may not consult any other sources.
2. This examination is made up of one essay question.
3. There is a three-hour time limit for this examination.
4. This examination is four (4) pages long, including this page. Please make sure you have all the pages now.
5. Avoid answers that are too general or conclusory, or do not answer the question asked. If you find that you do not have sufficient facts to answer a question fully, state what those facts are and how the presence, absence, or clarification of certain facts would affect your analysis and conclusions. Do the same with any substantive rule of law that we have not studied that might affect your analysis or conclusion.
6. If you must handwrite, please write only on one side of each bluebook page, DOUBLESPACE your answers, and write as legibly as possible.
7. Be sure to take 10 minutes at the beginning of the question to briefly plan out and outline the essay. This will result in greater clarity in your answers.
8. If time constraints necessitate, complete in outline form any remaining portions of your answer that you are unable to compose in fuller detail.
