Professor Peter Molk, pmolk@willamette.edu
Class: Monday/Wednesday, 10:50-12:20
Office: Room 425
Office hours: Thursday 10:15-11:15

COURSE MATERIALS:
Our casebook is KLEIN, RAMSEYER, & BAINBRIDGE, BUSINESS ASSOCIATIONS (9th ed. 2015). You are not required to purchase any casebook update or the statutory supplement: the statutory materials are freely available online. Additional materials will be posted to our course website.

EXPECTATIONS:
Class will start on time and end on time. I expect you to attend every class and to arrive on time. We will follow the law school’s attendance policy.

ASSIGNMENTS:
The reading list is available on our course website. From time to time, the readings may be adjusted. There are also four problems that will be assigned during the semester, as noted in the syllabus. They will be graded on a check-plus, check, check-minus basis. Problems must be completed, printed out, and handed to me by the start of the corresponding class. Problems submitted after class begins will receive no credit.

EXAM AND GRADE:
Each of the four problems will be worth 5% of your final grade. The final exam constitutes the remaining 80% of your grade. To assist in your exam, you may use any non-human, non-real-time-internet resources you desire. The exam must be taken at the scheduled date and time except in a case of family or medical emergency or flexing accommodated by the Office of Student Affairs.

Participation and attendance will also be factored into your final grade and will count for no more than a one-step increase or decrease in your final grade, but such adjustments will be unusual except in the case of a history of late arrivals to class.
