GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

Read only this sheet before the examination begins. Do not turn the page until the exam begins.

It is the responsibility of law students to be familiar with the Student Grievance Procedure. The following acts are violations over which the Grievance Committee has jurisdiction:

A. Acquiring or divulging unauthorized information concerning the content of an examination or other graded course material.
B. Violating the time limits provided for an examination, either by beginning before the stipulated time or by answering after the time set for completion.
C. Falsely representing another's words or ideas as one's own, in any academic work.
D. Collaborating upon a course-required project without the authorization of the instructor.

Put exam numbers on the exam envelope before the exam begins. Put exam numbers on the blue books as you use them. Page numbers are not necessary inside the blue books. At the end of the exam, return all used scratch paper and exam questions (unless instructions clearly state that you may keep the questions) inside the exam envelope. Return all unused materials next to the collection box in the lobby.

An announcement will be given in each test center to start and stop the exam, including a 5-minute warning before the end of allocated exam time. All writing and marking on exams must cease when the announcement is made that the allocated time for the exam has expired. No exceptions will be allowed, including writing page and/or exam numbers on your completed exam.

With the exception of laptop computers, the use of electronic devices (including headphones) is prohibited during exams, subject to WUCL’s Rules and Procedures.

If you have software problems that you cannot remedy by re-booting and re-launching the Exam4 software, you must hand-write the remainder of your exam.

SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS

1. This is a partial open-book exam, meaning that you may consult: your casebook, your notes, any materials distributed by the instructor, and any outline to which you have made a substantial contribution. You may not consult any commercial outline, any other person, or any other source.

2. This examination is three (3) pages long, including this page. Please make sure you have all the pages now.

3. Unless otherwise indicated, please assume that Rumpus is a state in the United States, and that the Model Penal Code (“MPC”) is fully applicable.

4. This examination will not be graded, as the purpose is for you to practice taking timed exams under pressure.

5. Avoid answers that are too general or conclusory, or do not answer the question asked. If you find that you do not have sufficient facts to answer a question fully, state what those facts are and how the presence, absence, or clarification of certain facts would affect your analysis and conclusions. Do the same with any substantive rule of law that we have not studied that might affect your analysis or conclusion. If a relevant area of law that we have studied is unsettled, discuss the arguments underlying each position and provide what you believe to be the best answer based on the relevant criteria, including precedent, statutory text, and policy.
