A General Information sheet and a file containing an explanation of the Course Objectives, Approach and Agenda/Outline are posted on the course WISE website which can be found under Tab LAW 108 01 16/SP when you logon using your WUCL account.

First Class Assignment: Tuesday January 12:

1. Make certain you can access and navigate the course website. If you have any problems or questions please let me know.

2. Read:

a. On the course website under Resources: The Course Objectives, Approach and Agenda/Outline (pay particular attention to the Objectives and Approach sections, but give the rest a look) and Prior Year Final Exam Number 1, and

b. In the casebook: Preface (pages v-vii) and pages 1-7 of Chapter 1

3. Come prepared to discuss the following:

a. Why take a course in property law? I have “because it is required” and “it is on the bar exam” covered. Why is property law expertise important to virtually every lawyer?

b. Why do the listed learning outcomes maximize the return on your investment in this course? In this regard, consider your answer to the above question, why most people want a legal degree and what the Prior Year Final Exam Number 1 indicates about how to do well in this course.

c. What approach will we be using to accomplish those learning outcomes? Why does that approach make sense given your answer to the above question?

d. The structure, rationale and use of the Application Framework, the Legal Assessment Framework and the role of policy in property lawyering.
