Modifies requirements for declaring conflict of interest when conflict arises out of association with tax-exempt nonprofit corporation.

Expands certain definitions of "relative" and "member of household."

A BILL FOR AN ACT

Relating to government ethics; creating new provisions; amending ORS 244.020, 244.040, 244.120, 293.708 and 469.810; and repealing ORS 244.135.

Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:

SECTION 1. ORS 244.120 is amended to read:

244.120. [(1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, when met with an actual or potential conflict of interest, a public official shall:]

[(a) If the public official is a member of the Legislative Assembly, announce publicly, pursuant to rules of the house of which the public official is a member, the nature of the conflict before taking any action thereon in the capacity of a public official.]

[(b)] (1) [If the public official is a judge.] When met with an actual or potential conflict of interest, a public official who is a judge shall remove the judge from the case giving rise to the conflict or advise the parties of the nature of the conflict.

[(c)] (2) Except as provided in subsections (4) and (6) of this section, when met with an actual or potential conflict of interest, if [the] a public official is [any other] an appointed official subject to this chapter, the public official shall notify in writing the person who appointed the public official to office of the nature of the conflict, and request that the appointing authority dispose of the matter giving rise to the conflict. Upon receipt of the request, the appointing authority shall designate within a reasonable time an alternate to dispose of the matter, or shall direct the official to dispose of the matter in a manner specified by the appointing authority.

(3)(a) When met with a potential conflict of interest, a member of the Legislative Assembly shall announce publicly, pursuant to the rules of the relevant house of the Legislative Assembly, the nature of the potential conflict before taking action thereon in the capacity of a member.

(b) Except as provided in this subsection and subsection (6) of this section, when met with an actual conflict of interest, a member of the Legislative Assembly shall announce publicly, pursuant to the rules of the relevant house of the Legislative Assembly, the nature of the actual conflict and refrain, in committee, on the floor of the relevant house of the Legislative Assembly and in any other legislative meeting, from participating as a member in any discussion or debate on the matter out of which the actual conflict arises and refrain from voting on the matter. If allowed by the rules of the relevant house of the Legislative Assembly, the member may vote on the matter when it is considered by the Senate or House of Representatives.

(c) This subsection does not apply to legislative caucus meetings.

[(2)] (4) An elected public official, other than a judge or member of the Legislative Assembly, or an appointed public official serving on a board or commission[,] shall:
(a) When met with a potential conflict of interest, announce publicly the nature of the potential conflict prior to taking any action thereon in the capacity of a public official; or (b) When met with an actual conflict of interest, announce publicly the nature of the actual conflict and,[,] [(A)] except as provided in [subparagraph (B) of this paragraph] sub-sections (5) and (6) of this section, refrain from participating as a public official in any discussion or debate on the [issue] matter out of which the actual conflict arises [or] and refrain from voting on the [issue] matter.
[(B)] (5) [If any] When a public official described in subsection (4) of this section is met with an actual conflict of interest and the public official’s vote is necessary to meet a requirement of a minimum number of votes to take official action, [be eligible to] the public official may vote[,] but may not [to] participate as a public official in any discussion or debate on the [issue] matter out of which the actual conflict arises. For purposes of this subsection:
(a) The minimum number of votes to take official action means the number of votes necessary to make a valid decision, including decisions when a proposed action fails because the result is a tie vote or other result that means no action or change in policy; and (b) Unless a decision is required by law, the vote of a public official met with an actual conflict of interest is not necessary if the minimum number of votes may be cast by other public officials, even if the result is a tie vote or other result that means no action or change in policy.
(6) When a public official is met with an actual conflict of interest that arises out of membership in or membership on the board of directors of a nonprofit corporation that is tax exempt under section 501(c) of the Internal Revenue Code, the public official may participate as a public official in any discussion or debate on the matter out of which the actual conflict arises and may vote or otherwise act on the matter. This subsection does not apply to a public official who is a judge.

[(3)] (7) [Nothing in subsection (1) or (2) of this section requires] Sub-sections (1) to (6) of this section do not require any public official to announce a conflict of interest more than once [on the occasion which] when the matter out of which the conflict arises is discussed, [or] debated or voted upon.

[(4)] (8) [Nothing in] This section [authorizes] does not authorize a public official to vote if the public official is otherwise prohibited from doing so.

SECTION 2. ORS 244.020 is amended to read:

244.020. As used in this chapter, unless the context requires otherwise:

(1) “Actual conflict of interest” means any action or any decision or recommendation by a [person acting in a capacity as a] public official acting in an official capacity, the effect of which would be to the private pecuniary benefit or detriment of the [person] public official or [the person’s] a relative or member of the household of the public official or any business with which the [person] public official or a relative or member of the household of the [person] public official is associated, unless the pecuniary benefit or detriment arises out of circumstances described in subsection (14) of this section.

(2) “Business” means any corporation, partnership, proprietorship, firm, enterprise, franchise, association, organization, self-employed individual and any other legal entity operated for economic gain [but excluding any], including an income-producing not-for-profit corporation that is tax exempt under section 501(c) of the Internal Revenue Code [with which a public official or a relative of the public official is associated only as a member or board director or in a nonremunerative capacity].

(3) “Business with which the [person] public official is associated”
means:

(a) Any private business or closely held corporation, including an income-producing not-for-profit corporation that is tax exempt under section 501(c) of the Internal Revenue Code, of which the [person] public official or [the person’s] a relative or member of the household of the public official is a director, officer, owner, [or] employee[,] or agent or any private business or closely held corporation, including an income-producing not-for-profit corporation that is tax exempt under section 501(c) of the Internal Revenue Code, in which the [person] public official or [the person’s] a relative or member of the household of the public official owns or has owned stock[, another] or other form of equity interest, stock options or debt instruments worth $1,000 or more at any point in the preceding calendar year;

(b) Any publicly held corporation in which the [person] public official or [the person’s] a relative or member of the household of the public official owns or has owned $100,000 or more in stock or [another] other form of equity interest, stock options or debt instruments at any point in the preceding calendar year;

(c) Any publicly held corporation of which the [person] public official or [the person’s] a relative or member of the household of the public official is a director or officer; or

(d) For public officials required to file a statement of economic interest under ORS 244.050, any business from which 50 percent or more of the total annual income of the [person] public official and the relatives and members of the [person’s] household of the public official is derived during the current calendar year.

(5) “Development commission” means any entity [which] that has the authority to purchase, develop, improve or lease land or the authority to operate or direct the use of land. [This] The authority described in this subsection must be more than ministerial.

(11) "Legislative official" means any member or member-elect of the Legislative Assembly, any member of an agency, board or committee that is part of the legislative branch and any staff person, assistant or employee [thereof] of the legislative branch.

(12) "Member of the household" means any [relative] person who resides with the public official.

(13) "Planning commission" means a county planning commission created under ORS chapter 215 or a city planning commission created under ORS chapter 227.

(14) "Potential conflict of interest" means any action or any decision or recommendation by a [person acting in a capacity as a] public official acting in an official capacity, the effect of which could be to the private pecuniary benefit or detriment of the [person] public official or [the person's] a relative or member of the household of the public official[,] or [a] any business with which the [person] public official or [the person's] a relative or member of the household of the public official is associated, unless the pecuniary benefit or detriment arises out of the following:

(a) An interest or membership in a particular business, industry, occupation or other class required by law as a prerequisite to the holding by the [person] public official of the office or official position.

(b) Any action [in the person's] by a public official acting in an official capacity [which] that would affect to the same degree a class consisting of all inhabitants of the state, or a smaller class consisting of an industry, occupation or other group, including [one] a class of which or in which the [person] public official, [or the person's] a relative or member of the household of the public official or a business with which the [person] public official or [the person's] a relative or member of the household of the public official is associated, is a member or is engaged. The commission may by rule limit the minimum size of or otherwise establish criteria for or identify the smaller classes that qualify under this exception.

[(c) Membership in or membership on the board of directors of a nonprofit corporation that is tax-exempt under section 501(c) of the Internal Revenue Code.]

(c) Any recommendation made by a public official in any budgeting process or other negotiation with respect to the salary or other compensation of the public official or a relative or member of the household of the public official, when the recommendation with respect to the salary or other compensation of the public official or a relative or member of the household of the public official is made as part of the official duties or responsibilities of the public official.

(15) "Public official" means any person who, when an alleged violation of any provision of this chapter occurs, is serving the State of Oregon or any of its political subdivisions or any other public body of the state as an officer, employee, agent or otherwise, and irrespective of whether the person is compensated for such services.

[whether] directly or indirectly, honoraria in an amount in excess of $1,500 or in any amount for an appearance within the state or for an appearance during a legislative session, regardless of location, for the legislative official or for any relative or member of the household of the legislative official, except that a legislative official may solicit or receive honoraria for services performed in relation to the private profession or occupation of the legislative official. [No] A candidate for legislative office [shall] may not solicit or receive, [whether] directly or indirectly, honoraria in an amount in excess of $1,500 or in any amount for an appearance within the state for the candidate or for any relative or member of the household of the candidate, except that a candidate for legislative office may solicit or receive honoraria for services performed in relation to the private profession or occupation of the legislative [official] candidate.

[(d)] (c) Any public official not described in paragraph (a) or (b) [or (c)] of this subsection or a relative or member of the [public official's] household of the public official may receive honoraria.

[(2)] (4) [No] A public official or candidate for public office or a relative or member of the household of the public official or candidate [shall] may not solicit or receive, [whether] directly or indirectly[,] during any calendar year, any gift or gifts with an aggregate value in excess of $100 from any single source who could reasonably be known to have a legislative or administrative interest in any governmental agency in which the public official has or the candidate if elected would have any official position or over which the public official exercises or the candidate if elected would exercise any authority.

[(3)] (5) [No] A public official [shall] may not solicit or receive, [either] directly or indirectly, and [no person shall] a person may not offer or give to any public official, any pledge or promise of future employment[,] based on any understanding that [such] the public official's vote, official action or judgment would be influenced [thereby] by the pledge or promise.

[(4)] (6) [No] A public official [shall] may not attempt to further or further the personal gain of the public official through the use of confidential information gained in the course of or by reason of the official position or activities of the public official in any way.

[(5)] (7) [No person shall] A person may not offer during any calendar year any gift or gifts with an aggregate value in excess of $100 to any public official or candidate [therefor] for public office or a relative or member of the household of the public official or candidate if the person has a legislative or administrative interest in [a] any governmental agency in which the public official has or the candidate if elected would have any of-official position or over which the public official exercises or the candidate if elected would exercise any authority.

[(6)] (8) [No person shall] A person may not attempt to represent or represent a client for a fee before the governing body of a public body of which the person is a member. This subsection does not apply to the person’s employer, business partner or other associate.

(9) The provisions of this section apply regardless of whether actual conflicts of interest or potential conflicts of interest are announced or disclosed under ORS 244.120.

SECTION 4. ORS 293.708 is amended to read:

293.708. (1) As used in this section:

(a) “Business” has the meaning given that term in ORS 244.020.

Council becomes aware that action on a matter pending before the council might lead to private pecuniary benefit or detriment to the [person] public official, to a relative of the [person] public official or to a business with which the [person] public official or a relative of the [person] public official is associated, the [member] public official shall notify in writing the State Treasurer or the Chief Deputy State Treasurer that any action, decision or recommendation by the [member] public official might constitute an actual or potential conflict of interest. The [member] public official shall provide the notice not later than three business days after the [member] public off-ficial becomes aware of the possibility of an actual or potential conflict.

(3) Subsection (2) of this section does not apply if the pecuniary benefit or detriment arises out of circumstances described in ORS 244.020 (14)(a) to (c).

(4) Nothing in this section excuses a public official who is a member of the council from compliance with ORS 244.120.
