Welcome to Willamette University!

Congratulations on choosing Willamette University for your MBA education. We are confident you will find your Willamette MBA experience to be a rewarding and sound investment in your future, both professionally and personally.

This letter can answer some of your questions regarding billing and payment of tuition and fees for Willamette University’s Early Career MBA and MBA for Career Change programs. In the future, the majority of communication regarding your student account will occur via e-mail.

Health Insurance Requirement

All U.S. and international Willamette Early Career/Career Change MBA students are required to carry health insurance. Willamette University automatically places enrolled students on a third party student health insurance policy.

Student health insurance is billed on a semester basis and will appear on your tuition and fees statement.

If you have coverage under another plan, you may be able to waive Willamette’s student insurance plan. To access the waiver form and to learn more about Student Health Insurance please go to www.willamette.edu/dept/health/insurance

U.S. students with comparable coverage may complete an online waiver between July 20, 2015 and September 14, 2015.

International students should contact the Office of International Education, oieadvising@willamette.edu for waiver information.

Billing Process for Tuition and Fees

While attending Willamette University, you will be billed each semester for tuition, fees and other incurred charges. You will receive your billing online through Bill+Payment, Willamette University’s online billing and payment system. When the billing is posted, you will receive an e-mail notification at your university e-mail address.

The initial bills for fall and spring semester are posted on or around the 15th of the month in July and December, respectively. Payment for Fall Semester 2015 is due on August 24, 2015. Payment for Spring Semester 2016 is due on January 18, 2016. Unpaid tuition balances are subject to a $50 late fee and a 1 percent monthly finance charge.

Additional information regarding the billing process and access to your electronic statement can be found at www.willamette.edu/dept/studentaccounts/info_bill/.
