You may attach up to FIVE pages of written materials with this application. The written material should consist of those materials that you think will be most helpful to a committee in making its determination about whether you should be enrolled in the Program. You may want to use part of the five pages for letters of recommendation, or a copy of your resume, or an excerpt from a writing sample, or media coverage of something you may have done, etc. There are no restrictions about what you can include, but we will not consider more than the first five pages of written materials produced for this application. Your personal statement will count towards the page limit.
