|---|

Do you (or does your organization) have a law reform project that is well-suited for study by the Oregon Law Commission?

A written law reform proposal seeking involvement of the Oregon Law Commission should be addressed to the Oregon Law Commission Program Committee for consideration and contain the following preferred sections:

1. PROBLEM: Identify the specific issue to be studied or addressed by the Law Commission and explain the adverse consequences of current law. An illustration from real life might be helpful.

2. HISTORY OF REFORM EFFORTS: Explain past efforts to address the problem and the success or limits of those efforts.

3. SCOPE OF PROJECT: Explain what needs to be studied, evaluated or changed to fix the problem.

4. LAW COMMISSION INVOLVEMENT: Explain why the issue is a good subject for law reform of broad general interest and need (as opposed to an issue likely to be advanced by a single interest group or lobby).

5. PROJECT PARTICIPANTS: Identify individuals who are willing to serve on a Work Group, and a Reporter who is willing to work with the Chair of the Work Group to draft a Report and Comments. The Chair of the Work Group should be a Commissioner. The Proposal may state a preference for a chair.
