ADMINISTRATIVE APPOINTMENTS

Willamette University College of Law, Salem, Oregon

Dean, Summer 2020-Present

Overview

- Lead and manage the first law school in the Pacific Northwest, including more than 300 full-time JD students, twenty-plus tenured and tenure-track professors, twenty adjunct professors, and twenty-plus staff; strengthen alumni relations, development, budget management; design and implement strategic vision; facilitate a strong culture of shared ownership focused on equity across the institution.

Highlights:

- Admissions: Recruited strongest and largest academic class in more than a decade; launched seven direct admission programs; collaborated with AccessLex to launch a diversity pathway admission program; consistently increased the number of applicants to the law school despite a double-digit decrease in applicants to law schools nationwide; regularly exceeded revenue goals.
- Diversity, Equity & Inclusion: Launched Racial Justice Task Force to study implicit bias in jury selection; oversaw faculty adoption of a resolution on racism, hate, and violence; chaired University-wide Committee on Diversity, Equity & Inclusion; launched a law school specific “Institutional Equity Committee” comprised of faculty, staff, and students charged with helping to instill equity into all of the College’s initiatives; advised SBA in amending its constitution for the first time since 1996 to create a VP for Diversity, Equity & Inclusion; created new Dean’s Diversity Scholarship.
- Career Services: Launched collaboration with the Stevens Foundation to create new public service fellowships; posted the highest gold standard employment numbers & full time/long-term employment categories of all seven law schools in the Pacific Northwest; entered into an agreement with Legal Innovators to facilitate placement of graduates from traditionally underrepresented backgrounds into Big Law positions; joined ABA Diversity Clerkship program.
- Advancement & Alumni Relations: Raised sufficient funds to engage in four-phase building renovation designed to create a more inclusive physical space; completed back-to-back record-breaking annual fund years; secured the second-largest gift in the College of Law’s history.
- Bar passage: Successfully designed and oversaw a comprehensive study to better understand which courses help students pass the bar; advocated twice before the Oregon Supreme Court for attorney licensure reform; served as one of only three drafters to submit final licensure reform proposal to the Court; successfully obtained unanimous vote from the Court approving in concept of two new licensure pathways; entered into new institutional agreement with Kaplan & AccessLex to include bar preparation services into tuition; secured grant to assess the impact of cohort structure on first-time bar pass rates.
- Communications: Launched national media campaigns that simultaneously, successfully, and for the first time, improved the College of Law’s US News scores for lawyers/judges and peer assessment categories; reformed internal communications protocols to streamline the calendaring of student events; oversaw significant growth in social media followers across four platforms; launched monthly Dean’s newsletter.
- Faculty: Completed implementation of unified tenure system, recognizing equity among faculty status; added new Faculty Development Series to support the improvement of faculty teaching, particularly in trauma-informed teaching, creating an inclusive classroom, and handling classroom conversations; created Associate Dean for Strategic Initiatives; hired ten new faculty; collaboratively rewrote the College’s mission.
- Other highlights: Navigated competing crises in the form of the pandemic, wildfires, and a forty-year ice storm through an inclusive governance approach with active participation from faculty, students, and staff; taught multiple classes; chaired successful search for new dean of business school; chaired AALS Conference for New Law Teachers; eliminated conditional scholarships, a practice that had persisted at Willamette for more than two decades; taught the largest class in the University; led the law school through successful ABA reaccreditation; oversaw largest rise in US News rankings in over a decade; successfully launched peer-to-peer student mentor program; reduced total law school attrition by double-digit number of students.
